

Jake Landau
Dreambook 2 : Breathing and Dreaming
Crossroads Records

Jake Landau's sophomore album Dreambook 2 : Breathing and Dreaming releases everywhere June 10th, 2022.

Dreambook 2 : Breathing and Dreaming is an album that intertwines reality with dreams. Created in the space of the quarantine and lockdown of 2020-2022, Dreambook 2 explores a sonic world that spans from dreamy synthesizer and keyboard interludes, to hard hitting grooves and breakbeats, to artful chord progressions and melodies that get stuck in your head. The songs on Dreambook 2 : Breathing and Dreaming are layered and dense, leaving you to discover new pieces of them every time you listen. The blend of sounds and instruments in this music often leave you wondering which instruments are doing what.

Dreambook 2 : Breathing and Dreaming is the companion album to Dreambook 1 : Breaking the Silence (2021) All of the song titles as well as album titles come from snippets of dreams, pulled from dream journals that were kept during the same time the music was written and recorded. Titles correspond with dreams had either the night before or the night after a given song was written and/or recorded.

Jake Landau is a multi-instrumentalist, composer, sound engineer, and field recordist based in New York State. As a musician who primarily plays drums/percussion, piano, and guitar, Landau has a fluid musicality that blurs the line between his instruments and musical genres. Landau has worked extensively with composer/percussionist Susie Ibarra as a member of her Fragility Etudes Ensemble, has field recorded with her in India, Morocco, and the NW Coastal US, and performed with her at the 2016 Rio Olympics. Landau can be heard with Ibarra on her albums Perception (2017) and Walking on Water (2021) as well as her modular architecture and music mobile iOS app Music and Water Routes of Fez. Landau's most recent releases as a composer/performer include Lullaby For a Suffering World (2021) One Spring Morning (2021) and Dreambook 1 : Breaking the Silence (2021) Landau runs Crossroads Studio, a recording studio out of his home in New York State.

Please get in touch with Jake Landau at Js1.landau@gmail.com for press/interview inquiries.

Website - www.crossroads-studio.com

Instagram - @jakelandau